

Positions for Students at ZAS Semantics/Pragmatics

Berlin, 10/10/2017

The Leibniz-Zentrum Allgemeine Sprachwissenschaft is looking to hire three student research assistants in the semantics/pragmatics research group. These positions are for 41 hours/month under the provision of the negotiated contract for student employees in Berlin. The employment contracts are initially for six months and can start November 15th 2017 or in early 2018, and can be extended as long as student status obtains. We aim to create good opportunities for students thinking about a research career in linguistics. All positions require at least working knowledge of English, reliability, and an interest in linguistic research.

Position 1. Student Assistant in FB IV

Tasks:

- editorial assistance for conference proceedings (Sinn und Bedeutung 22 - the leading European conference in semantics and pragmatics), among others correspondence with authors, light copyediting of submissions and processing of manuscripts
- assistance at ZAS events

Your profile:

- interest in linguistic research
- reliability
- knowledge of LaTeX typesetting is required
- preferably native or near-native fluency of English

Position 2. Student assistant in the project "Modelling the Use of Quantifiers in Typical and Atypical Speakers Probabilistically (MUQTASP)"

Tasks:

- assistance in experimental studies
- assistance at ZAS events

Your profile:

- interest in linguistic research
- reliability
- some programming experience is required, especially knowledge of R and html
- at least working knowledge of English

Position 3. Student assistant in the project "Lexical Inference vs Scalar Implicature (LISI)"

Tasks:

- assistance in experimental studies either in the lab or on the internet
- assistance at ZAS events

Your profile:

- interest in linguistic research
- reliability
- some programming experience and experience in image editing are required
- at least working knowledge of English

Applications consisting of a cover letter, CV, a university transcript, and the Abitur or other high school diploma, should be send in PDF format to salfner@leibniz-zas.de. The cover letter should also state for which position(s) you are applying and a desired start date. The search will continue until the positions are filled, but applications received by October 20th receive fullest consideration.
