

2nd International Conference on Quotation and Meaning ZAS Berlin, October 16-18, 2008

Program

Thursday, October 16

- 13.50–14.00 Introductory Remarks
- 14.00–15.00 Jörg Meibauer & Markus Steinbach (Mainz):
Exploring the Meaning of Quotation
- 15.00–15.10 Break
- 15.10–15.50 Daniel Gutzmann & Erik Stei (Mainz):
Quotation Marks. A Matter of What People Do With Words
- 15.50–16.30 Claudia Poschmann (Frankfurt/M):
Metalinguistic Alternatives in Echo Questions
- 16.30–16.50 Break
- 16.50–17.30 Elizabeth Krawczyk (Georgetown):
When Hearsay Evidence is Better than the Reportative Evidential
- 17.30–18.10 Olga Filatova (Ústí nad Labem):
Quotation as the Keystone of Totalitarian Ideological Discourse

Friday, October 17

- 10.00–11.00 Thomas Ede Zimmermann (Frankfurt/M): t.b.a.
- 11.00–11.10 Break
- 11.10–11.50 Emar Maier (Amsterdam):
Challenging the Indirect-Direct Distinction - the Case of Japanese
- 11.50–12.30 Boštjan Dvořák (ZAS Berlin):
The Quotative 'da': Its Use and Function in Slovenian
- 12.30–14.00 Lunch
- 14.00–14.40 Birgit Jordan (Mainz)
Quotes in the Language of Ancient Egypt and Mysterious Shifts
- 14.40–15.20 Annika Herrmann (Frankfurt/M) & Markus Steinbach (Mainz):
Visible Context Shifts: Quotation in Sign Languages
- 15.20–15.30 Break
- 15.30–16.10 Cathrine Fabricius-Hansen (Oslo):
Behabitive Reports
- 16.10–16.50 Johan Kjell Sæbø:
Judgment Ascriptions
- 16.50–17.00 Break
- 17.00–18.00 Pranav Anand (Santa Cruz):
Predicates of Taste: Context-Shift, Assessment-Shift, or Something Else?

Saturday, October 18

- 9.00–10.00 François Recanati (Paris):
Quotation and Context-shift
- 10.00–10.10 Break
- 10.10–10.50 Luka Crnic & Tue Trinh (MIT):
Embedding Imperatives
- 10.50–11.30 Claudia Poschmann (Frankfurt/M) & Magdalena Schwager (Göttingen):
Unquoted Imperatives
- 11.30–11.45 Break
- 11.45–12.30 Barbara Partee (Amherst):
Commentary
- 12.30–13.00 All Participants:
Final Discussion